

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:
September 17, 2019

CONTACT:
Michael Mitchell 202-671-2338
michael.mitchell3@dc.gov

OCTFME Recognizes the EATON HOTEL DC as the SEPTEMBER 2019 Location of the Month

Washington, D.C. – The Office of Cable Television, Film, Music and Entertainment (OCTFME) recognizes EATON HOTEL DC as the SEPTEMBER 2019 Location of the Month.

Founded by Katherine Lo, whose background in activism and film-making is what fuels her vision of a new inclusive gathering place for change-makers and creatives which is Eaton Hotel.

Eaton Hotel DC's media arm supports film and television productions, artistic endeavors, live events, and programming opportunities with multiple portals for engagement including: a radio station, cinemas, artists and activist residencies, music venues speaker auditoriums and more. Eaton Workshop is a modern day community center and laboratory supporting creativity across multiple creative mediums. The hotel also offers 15,0000 square feet of event space for meetings, conferences and events and sweeping views from its roof top balcony bar and lounge, which are ideal for cinematically appealing views of the District.

"We are ecstatic to be recognized by OCTFME as the featured Location of the Month for September 2019," stated Sheldon Scott, Director of Culture at Eaton Hotel. He continued, "With Media being one of Eaton's key pillars, Eaton consists of distinct parts—Hotel, House, Media, Wellness, and Impact. Eaton Workshop is a global purpose-driven company and creative lab at the intersection of culture, media, hospitality, wellness, and progressive social change. We are dedicated to providing safe spaces for the film and television community to create and collaborate in spaces like our Cinema and Radio Station."

Collectively, the pillars serve as an incubator for arts and culture, a beacon for sustainability, a hub for impact initiatives, a holistic healing center, and a global media presence. Building a community with a shared ethos of caring for today's world and conceiving of how we can make it better, Eaton forms connections through its physical spaces, as well as through dynamic digital storytelling and experiences.

To learn more about Eaton Hotel DC visit <https://www.eatonworkshop.com/hotel/dc> or OCTFME's locations referral resource EATON HOTEL DC. For information about past locations of the month, visit DC Reel-Scout Directory.

Social Media and Website:

Website - <https://www.eatonworkshop.com/hotel/dc>

Facebook - <https://www.facebook.com/pages/The-Eaton-Hotel/507496613013324>

Twitter - @eatonworkshop

Instagram - @eaton.dc

The “Location of the Month” initiative is part of the agency’s mission to market and support District locales as media production locations, and to bring attention to the wide range of cinematically compelling locations that are available to film and television productions.

If you have a suggestion for a future OCTFME “Location of the Month” we would love to hear from you. If you own or manage a business, venue or location you would like to be featured as a “Location of the Month,” or if you are a filmmaker or a fan of local filmmaking with a suggestion for a unique DC location OCTFME could feature in the future “Location of the Month” please use this nomination form and tell us all about it.

###

About OCTFME

The Office of Cable Television, Film, Music and Entertainment (OCTFME) produces and broadcasts programming for the District of Columbia’s public, educational, and government access (PEG) cable television channels and digital radio station; regulates the District of Columbia’s cable television service providers; provides customer service for cable subscribers; and supports a sustainable film, music, and entertainment creative economy and labor market in the District of Columbia.

OCTFME operates and manages the District’s government television access channels: the District Council Channel (DCC), the District of Columbia Network (DCN), and the District Knowledge Network (DKN). OCTFME’s award-winning content provides resourceful information on government activity, education, current events, history, music, arts and entertainment. OCTFME manages and programs DC Radio 96.3 HD4 digital radio station, the District of Columbia’s first government radio station in partnership with Howard University’s WHUR.

OCTFME provides production support services that advance film, television, video, entertainment, interactive, multimedia, and digital media content creators. These services include: permitting; location scouting; production support; job placement assistance; workforce development; and the DC Film, Television and Entertainment Rebate Fund.

OCTFME supports the creative economy through the Mayor Muriel Bowser Presents: 202Creates initiative, administering programs supporting the growth and sustainability of the creative industries in all 8 Wards of the District.

For more information, contact the Office of Cable Television, Film, Music, and Entertainment at (202) 671-0066, visit us online at: entertainment.dc.gov, and follow us on Facebook, Instagram and Twitter.

Join the Conversation: #FilmedinDC, #202Creates, #EntertainDC