OCTFME RECOGNIZE
MOXY DOWNTOWN DC
AS THE APRIL 2023
LOCATION OF THE MONTH

A dynamic, visually unique modern hotel in the center of the District of Columbia, the Moxy Washington, DC Downtown DC offers a perfect location backdrop for media productions and still photography shoots.

Washington, DC – The Office of Cable Television, Film, Music, and Entertainment (OCTFME) recognizes MOXY DOWNTOWN DC, as the April 2023 Location of the Month.

The Moxy Washington, DC Downtown is a stylish, bespoke boutique hotel, social gathering place and special event space located on Ward 2's K Street in the Mt. Vernon Square neighborhood of the District. A modern, inviting, distinctively designed space with "Instagram-able” flourishes, The Moxy features a visually stunning three-story open lobby, common areas, and chic hotel rooms, a well-appointed bar and areas with board games has become a much sought-after go-to location in the District for hotel stays, social gatherings, special events and business conferences.

“We are delighted to be a featured location of the OCTFME.” said Erich Hosbach, Moxy Downtown DC Sales & Marketing Director. “Moxy is proud to promote local artists and provide an open, welcoming, and safe space for creators to express themselves through all art forms.”

A provocative, playful and welcoming setting unlike any other in Washington, DC, The Moxy features many one-of-a-kind design features and artwork, including a mural from local artist Michael Crossett, sculptures from Anna U. Davis, imaginative screen prints from graphic artist Glenn Fry, and other curated art. The Moxy is a visually eclectic environment, a striking and unique location that can serve as a perfect backdrop for all styles of film, media, and still -2-photography projects. Among the production-friendly spaces available at The Moxy Washington, DC Downtown include guest rooms, lobby, bar, lounge and common areas, fitness room, theater/lecture space, reception area, boardroom, lofts, outdoor patio, a banquet room, and a retractable roof with views of the Washington Monument.
