Former 6th District Police Station Receives April 2017 Location of the Month Distinction

Washington, DC – The Office of Cable Television, Film, Music and Entertainment (OCTFME) recognizes the Former 6th District Police Station as the April 2017 Location of the Month.

Located at 42nd Street and Benning Road NE, the space formerly was occupied by the Metropolitan Police Department. The venue is centrally located in the District’s Deanwood neighborhood in Ward 7.

The venue has an intake and cell-block area, with several interrogation rooms and offices. The venue also offers a property room and counter with a steel mesh divider along with a gym with male and female locker rooms. There’s ample off-street parking to accommodate a police station worth of cars. The property won’t last and is scheduled for demolition later in 2017.

To learn more about the former 6th District Police Station and to view photos of the location, please visit the Location of the Month page and the ReelScout page on the OCTFME website.

If you are interested in using the former 6th District Police Station as a filming location or interested in scheduling a site tour, please contact us entertainment@dc.gov.

###

The “Location of the Month” initiative is part of OCTFME’s mission to market and support District locales as media production locations, and to bring attention to the wide range of cinematically compelling locations that are available to film and television productions.

Do you have a business or location you would like to have featured as OCTFME’s “Location of the Month”? If so, please forward your inquiry to entertainment@dc.gov.
